TWENTY-SECOND CONFERENCE

Northwest Nebraska Conference of Methodist Episcopal Church to Be in Alliance Sept. 9 to 14

The Northwest Nebraska Conference of the Methodist Episcopal church, composed of forty-five charges and as many preachers, will hold its twenty-second annual session in Alliance Sept. 9 to 14, Bishop Theodore S. Henderson presiding. This is the first time Bishop Henderson has presided at this conference. This conference was formerly a part of the West Nebraska conference, being known as the Chadron district, but on account of the long distance the preachers had to travel to get to conference, and the growth of Methodism in this end of the state, it was decided to organize a new conference making four conferences in the state. Accordingly the Chadron district convened in Alliance Sept. 27, 1893, Bishop John M. Walden presiding, and was organized into the Northwest Nebraska conference having but twenty-six charges and one district, retaining the old name of Chadron, with Rev. A. R. Julian as superintendent. In 1897 another district was added as the result of the growth of Methodism, known as the Long Pine district, which also called for another superintendent.

Last year on account of the addition of new territory, both districts were changed in name to Alliance district and Ainsworth district, and each made the head of the district. Fourteen different bishops have presided at the different sessions of the conference. All but five of these have died. Six different superintendents have had their turn on the districts, four of whom are yet living. The conference has had four secretaries, all of whom are still active in the ministry. Rev. C. H. Burleigh of Marsland served in this capacity for eighteen years.

The Northwest Nebraska conference now extends on the Northwestern line of railway from Harrison near the Wyoming line east to Atkinson, not far from Fremont. On the Burlington railway from Crawford west of Alliance, east nearly to Broken Bow, and south from Alliance to Bridgeport, and from there east about fifty miles, and west to Wyoming line, and all between these two lines of railroad. Alliance has entertained the conference three times, 1893, 1900 and 1905. It will be the largest session this year of any year. The forty-five ministers and many of their wives will be present, besides representatives of colleges, hospitals, church boards and societies, and visiting ministers of other conferences. Some of Methodisms leading men from east and west will be here. Bishop Henderson, the presiding officer, is one of Methodism's strong preachers, characterized by spiritual power and intellectual ability.
